WORLD'S BASEBALL RECORD SMASHED

When Boston and Pittsburgh Battled For Twenty Innings Without a Run Being Scored - Pittsburgh Wins the Game With Two Runs in the Twenty-First - Nehf Pitched Entire Game For Losers-Grand Circuit Results.

Boston, Aug. 1.—A world's record for big league baseball of 20 innings without a run being scored by either team was made today by Pittsburgh and Boston, Pittsburgh making two runs in the 21st and winning, 2 to 0. The previous no score record was 18 innings. Today's was the longest National league game played in this city. Schmidt opened the 21st by singling to left. Cooper, who had relieved Mayer in the 18th as pitcher for Pittsburgh, forced Schmidt at second Ellam was thrown out, Cooper taking second on the play and reaching third on Leach's single to deep short. Carey's single to left scored Cooper and Southworth's single to center scored Leach's large to the country street that he favored clared in a statement that he favored a joint meeting of National and American club owners to decide when the season should end. He advocated games among the clubs of each section of the country after the present eastern trips of the National western clubs and the western trips of the American eastern clubs.

Leading the League.

Two Smiths who were prominent in the major leagues last season are now in the army. Sherrod Smith of the Robins is "over there" and Elmer Smith, with Washington and Cleveland, is in a camp in the middle west.

Nehf pitched the full distance for Boston and until the 21st held Pitts-burgh to eight hits. In the 12th Pitts-burgh failed to work the squeeze play. Southworth being tagged out at the plate on Mollwitz's bunt, Nehf to Wilson. In the second half of that inning J. C. Smith bunted fair on the third strike and Massey, who had been on third, crossed the plate, but Umpire Quigley ruled that Smith had interfered with Catcher Schmidt's attempt to field the bunt. Smith was declared out and Massey was ordered back to third.

Cubs increase Lead.

'No Man's Land," New Army Game No Recreation For a Mollycoddle-A Tip to Messrs Willard and Fulton.

We heard about it one day in New York and as we were always looking for something to build up fighting spirit, which the Yank scarcely needs at that. we staged it one night at a big can-tonment somewhere in these United States. New York, Aug. 1.— Chicago increased its lead over New York here today, winning the first of its fivegame series with the Giants 5 to 0.
